

Fantastic spacious three bedroom detached bungalow located on a cul de sac road with in easy walking distance of local shops and major bus routes.

The home is approached across the a large block paved parking area and entered vis the side door. Upon stepping foot inside the door a real feeling of home immediately sweeps over you. The main hall leads to the majority of rooms in the home, Over looking the front gardens and parking area are two great sized double bedrooms, or if not needed to house beds these rooms can be used as a study or even a dining room. Along the hall is the galley style kitchen which has been planned to offer plenty of storage and workspace. The homes bathroom is on the opposite side of the bungalow and is fantastically spacious with separate shower cubicle and bath tub. To the rear is the main living room which is a great size and offers plenty of room. Off this room is the third double bedroom which has doors leading out to the garden. Also accessed from the living room is the lovely garden room which gives the home extra living space. Outside to the rear is the seaside themed garden which is low maintenance and has many ornaments gathered from the local coast line. The hobby shop in the back garden is also a real plus and gives the owners space to enjoy hobbies and some occasional work from home. Outside tot

- Three Bedrooms
- Detached Bungalow
- Close to Shops
- Off Street Parking
- Seaside Theme Garden

he front is large parking area with border planting. The current owner also installed a awning which is a great spot to sit and watch the world go by with cup of coffee.

Tenure: Freehold

Local Authority: Folkestone & Hythe District Council

Plans are for layout purposes only and not drawn to scale, with any doors, windows and other internal features merely intended as a guide. Copyright WaterGley. Film produced using Planity.

Total area: approx. 89.2 sq. metres (960.1 sq. feet)

Ground Floor